Before using FreckleFree™:

"I just can't seem to get rid of my freckles. When I was a kid they were cute, but come on, I'm 34 with kids of my own now! Enough is enough! I've tried many products, none seem to work."

Daniella's Cosmetic Case History

This is me when I was five, with my mom on the beach. We had lived for years close to the sea and my skin was attacked by the sun, the sea... My very fair skin had no defenses...

My mother could've cared less about the negative effect of the sun, probably she'd never heard of skin cancer or wrinkles linked to environmental conditions. I started using a day cream with UV filters at 13, thanks to a dermatologist friend of the family's, who explained to me that skin cancer was a reality.

This is me at 22, when I started to use an anti-freckle cream. When I was a kid, they were cute, but at 22 they became a problem!

This is me now... Not too bad! I'm 44 and my skin looks great! I'll tell you my secret: no sun without sunscreen, no cigarettes, no air-conditioned room for more than 1 hour. I sleep with a special pillow to prevent wrinkles on my neck. Of course, everyday I use an anti-wrinkle cream, and twice a month I go to an esthetician for a massage.
